Option 4. If You Can't Spend a Whole Semester or Year Abroad, the School of Business & University Offer Lots of Study Tours, Usually Ranging from One to Two Weeks...

- Usually during one of the breaks (winter, spring, summer) or through a class

Option 1 – Look Up One of Our 3 Study Exchange Partners (Listed Below) & then Speak with the Office of Student Affairs

- KEDGE Business School – Bordeaux or Marseille, France – <https://student.kedge.edu/>
 - Host 1,000 exchange students annually
- EM Strasbourg Business School – Strasbourg, France – <http://www-english.em-strasbourg.eu>
 - Host over 400 exchange students annually
- Central University of Finance & Economics – Beijing, China – <http://en.cufe.edu.cn>

(For these programs, you will pay your normal tuition to Howard University for enrollment).

Option 2 – Pick-up a List of Bunche Center Provider Schools that are AACSB or EQUIS Accredited

- A list is available in the Office of Student Affairs (suite 222) or in the Bunche Center.

(For these programs, you will pay tuition directly to the university of choice).

Option 3 – Visit a Study Abroad advisor in the Ralph J. Bunche Center in person and check you're your options online at <http://global.howard.edu/ralph-j-bunche/>

Option 4 – Talk to Your Advisor, Office of Student Affairs, or Fellow Students to Learn About Study Tour Opportunities (and don't forget to check your Bison email)

Step Two – Make a Choice:

1. Review the FAQ Guide Provided by the Bunche Center.
2. Talk to Your Advisor to Map Out Your Course Schedule to Allow the Most Options Possible for Study Abroad.
3. Visit the Bunche Center to Discuss Funding Options. Remember, if You are on a Howard University Scholarship, Your Scholarship WILL Pay for Your Study Abroad Tuition in the Fall & Spring Semesters. In the Fall & Spring, Many Forms of Federal Aid will Also Cover Your Expenses.
4. Talk to Someone Who Has Studied Abroad, Go to an Interest Meeting, Gather as Much Information as You Can.
5. Select a School, Choose Your Classes. (Choose MORE Classes than You Intend to Take, In Case One Gets Dropped from their Class Schedule).

6. Get Approval for All Classes from the Department BEFORE You Go.
7. Stay in Touch with Student Affairs & the Bunche Center So that We Can Help You Prepare for Your Trip.
8. Learn and Enjoy!
