

Howard University School of Business MBA

Elective Concentration Courses

In addition to the core course curriculum requirement, a student must complete 15 credit hours of elective/concentration courses. The student may choose to either concentrate in a specific discipline or alternatively choose to complete a variety of elective courses to earn a general MBA. Students may choose one of the following disciplines:

Entrepreneurship – GENT-520, GENT-521, GENT-522, GENT-523

Finance – GFIN 590 and three electives (including GINB-502) finance. It is strongly urged that a finance or economics course be taken as the fifth elective.

Information Systems – GIST-503, GIST-590 and two additional IS courses

International Business – GINB-500, GINB-501, GINB-502, GINB-590

Marketing – GMKT-501, GMKT-503, GMKT-590, and one additional marketing elective.

Supply Chain Management – GSCM-501, GSCM-511, GSCM-590 and one additional elective from GSCM-502, GSCM-504, GSCM-506 or GSCM-509

*MBA Concentration: twelve hours of MBA concentration courses and three graduate credit hours of free electives.

General MBA: minimum of nine credit hours of MBA courses and maximum of six graduate credit hours of free electives.