

Howard University School of Business

MBA

General Management

In addition to the core course curriculum requirement, a student must complete 15 credit hours of elective/concentration courses. To obtain a general MBA (MBA in General Management) students must complete a minimum of nine credit hours of MBA courses and maximum of six graduate credit hours of free electives.

GMGT-501. Seminar in Management. 3 crs.

This course explores and examines current management topics including Total Quality Management (TQM), strategic management, and diversity.

Prerequisite: GMGT-500.

GMGT-505. Independent Study. 3 crs.

NO DESCRIPTION.

Prerequisite: GMGT-500.

GMGT-599. Management Consulting. 3 crs.

The fundamentals of management consulting will be emphasized. Topics will include conducting a management audit, reporting findings and recommendations, writing proposals, training course design and delivery, and the marketing of management consulting services.

Prerequisite: GMGT-500.